IN HONOR OF THE FAIR SPONSORS.

Dancing Party Complimentary to Miss Stockton and Miss Freeland.

Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Camp and Misses Sara and Violet Harris gave a very enjoyable dancing party at the home the former in compliment to Miss Julia Telfair Stockton and Miss Kate Hewes Freeland, of Jacksonville, the guests of the latter. It was a matter of much regret that Miss Elizabeth Fleming, the other guest of honor, was obliged to return home before the dance.

The beautiful Camphome was very prettily decorated with evergreens and numerous vases of roses, carnations and chrysanthemums were placed around the rooms, adding a delicious sweetness and fragrance to the air.

Mrs. Clarence Camp and Mrs. F. E. Harris met the guests in the reception hall and in the music room the Misses Harris and the honorees received. Miss Stockton and Miss Freeland were both very attractive in evening gowns of white tissue over taffeta, elaborately trimmed in lace.

A program dance of twelve numbers was enjoyed. Mr. Leon Fishel furnishing the music. After the twelve numbers four extras were played, the order being reversed, the young ladies making the engagements instead of the usual way.

In the music room delicious claret punch was served by Misses Leta Camp and Mary Burford and during the intermission light refreshments were passed.

The evening was pleasantly cool and the dancing was entered into with much zest and spirit and the young folks spent an exceedingly pleasant evening.

The following were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Camp and the Misses Harris on this occasion: Miss Stockton, Miss Freeland, Misses Louella Gary, Sarah McCreery, Sue Barco, Mary Anderson, Gertrude Pereda, Hattie Dye, Esther Weathers, Annie Davis, Mary Little, Johnnie Liddon, Valeta Potter, Meta Jewett, Jessie Palmer, Louise Harris, Mrs. J. C. B. Koonce, Mrs. S. Potts Eagleton, Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clark, Messrs. O. B. Howse, S. E. Hiller, W. H. Powers, T. H. Harris, M. J. Roess, J. H. and W. D. Taylor, Howard and Harvey Clark, E. T. Helvenston, J. H. Workman, J. H. Mathews, G. H. Ford, Stephen Jewett, Harry Walters, E. J. Crook, H. A. Waterman and J. Harvey Phillips, of Tampa.

The local committee, who looked after the reception of the confederate veterans during their late encampment in our city, desire specially to thank the Ocala Rifles and the Marion Cornet Band for their prompt willingness to add to the delightfulness of the occasion as they always do on all public demonstrations, and for this reason, among a great many others, we trust that the Rifles' minstrel performance will be crowded from the footlights to the rear windows on the night of the 11th.

Hark, ye mothers! don't forget, "TEETHINA" is in the market yet. A friend of babes is Dr. Moffett. He cures their ills for little profit. "TEETHINA" allays irritation, aids digestion, regulates the bowels, overcomes and counteracts the effects of summer's heat and makes teething easy and costs only 25 cents.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
For children's coughs, croup, etc.

A Charming Party.

There has been quite a number of pleasant affairs given in Ocala recently but none have been more thoroughly enjoyable than the driving party given by Mrs. S. T. Sistrunk Friday afternoon. Her guests were Mrs. William Hocker, Misses Kate Freeland and Julia Stockton, of Jacksonville, Misses Sara and Violet Harris, Jonnie Liddon and Mary Anderson. After driving for several miles on the Silver Springs hard road the party was driven to Mrs. Sistrunk's, where a delicious little supper was served in courses.

The center piece was an exquisite bouquet of white and yellow chrysanthemums, which Mrs. Sistrunk gracefully presented to the guests as favors. Mrs. Sistrunk's party was novel and very greatly enjoyed by the fortunate guests.

A Compliment to Mr. Brown.

The members of the Presbyterian Sunday school of this city, have just presented Hon. C. M. Brown with a handsome gold medal to be worn as a watch charm.

It was the intention of the pastor, Dr. Lindsay, to present it to him during his visit here at the confederate reunion but unfortunately Mr. Brown was not able to come, so this handsome gift was sent to him at his new home in Miami as a token of respect and esteem from the Sunday school, of which, for many years, he was the beloved superintendent. The present was in the nature of a surprise to Mr. Brown and of course will be highly prized and appreciated by him.

The Telephone Ear.

Do you know that nine out of ten persons who habitually use a telephone has waht i called the telephone ear? In its first stage the telephone ear becomes acute and sensitive, but after long use the hearing becomes more or less blunted, and half the complaints against poor telephone service may be attributed rightly to the telephone ear. Try it some time. If you habitually use the right ear next time use the left, and see if it isn't twice as satisfactory. It is a good plan for those who use the telephone much to frequent switch ears. This keeps the hearing equally balanced, and might ward off a permanent deafness.

Mrs. Green Hurt.

The many friends of Mrs. Green, mother of Mrs. Jake Gerig and Mr. L. N. Green, will be sorry to learn of the very painful accident that befel her Thursday night. As she was coming down the stairs she twisted her foot and fell down the last two steps. She wrenched her back quite severely and was badly hurt. We are glad to learn that it is not thought that there will be any serious results and Mrs. Green's friends trust that her recovery will be a rapid one.

Fruit Trees and Ornamentals.

Are you going to plant any trees or ornamentals this season? Now is the time to do it. Write us about your wants—we offer the following:

Orange and Grapefruit Trees.—over three hundred thousand of them, on sour orange, rough lemon and citrus trifoliata stock, all the most valuable varieties.

Peach Trees.—Two hundred thousand—mostly Florida varieties, as fine trees as we ever grew. A heavy demand for them, better get your order in at once.

Budded Pecans.—We haven't heretofore been able to grow sufficient to supply the demand, but have a nice lot this winter.

Roses and Ornamentals.—Over fifty thousand fine field grown, grafted roses. One hundred and twenty-six varieties selected especially for southern planting. Also a fine lot of ornamental shrubs, hedge plants and shade trees.

Our 1905 Catalog gives descriptions and prices of these and many more trees and plants, and contains valuable cultural information. Write for a copy
